ORAL REPORT OF THE SECRETARY-GENERAL PURSUANT TO HIS REPORT OF 5 JANUARY 1992 (S/23363)

The PRESIDENT: I should like to inform the Security Council that I have received a letter from the representative of Yugoslavia in which he requests to be invited to participate in the discussion of the item on the Council's agenda. In accordance with the usual practice, I propose, with the consent of the Council, to invite the representative of Yugoslavia to participate in the discussion without the right to vote, in conformity with the relevant provisions of the Charter and rule 37 of the Council's provisional rules of procedure.

There being no objection, it is so decided.

At the invitation of the President, Mr. Silovic (Yugoslavia) took the place reserved for him at the Council table.

The PRESIDENT: The Security Council will now begin its consideration of the item on its agenda. The Security Council is meeting in accordance with the understanding reached in its prior consultations.

Following consultations among members of the Security Council, I have been authorized to make the following statement on behalf of the Council:

"The members of the Security Council discussed on 7 January the tragic incident that occurred in Yugoslavia earlier in the day, in which helicopters of the European Community Monitoring Mission in Yugoslavia were shot down by a Yugoslav aircraft, killing four Italian members and one French member of the Monitoring Mission.

(The President)

"The members of the Council condemned this callous attack on unarmed civilian personnel. They extended their most sincere condolences to the families of those who had lost their lives. They noted that the Yugoslav authorities had accepted responsibility for this flagrant breach of the cease-fire, had said that they would take the necessary disciplinary action against those responsible, and had reiterated their commitment to observe the cease-fire fully. The members of the Council called on the Yugoslav authorities to take all steps necessary to ensure that this act does not go unpunished and that such incidents do not occur again.

"The members of the Council reiterated their urgent call on all parties to the conflict in Yugoslavia to respect their cease-fire commitments. They underlined the continuing importance of the role played by the EC Monitoring Mission, as emphasized in the Secretary-General's report of 5 January (S/23363). They expressed their deep appreciation for the work done by members of the Mission and they called on the Yugoslav parties to ensure that members of the Mission and UN personnel be allowed to fulfil their role with the full cooperation of all sides."

The Security Council has thus concluded the present stage of its consideration of the item on its agenda.

The meeting rose at 5.50 p.m.

FURTHER REPORT OF THE SECRETARY-GENERAL PURSUANT TO SECURITY COUNCIL RESOLUTION 721 (1991) (S/23363)

The PRESIDENT: I should like to inform the Security Council that I have received a letter from the representative of Yugoslavia in which he requests to be invited to participate in the discussion of the item on the Council's agenda. In accordance with the usual practice, I propose, with the consent of the Council, to invite that representative to participate in the discussion, without the right to vote, in conformity with the relevant provisions of the Charter and rule 37 of the Council's provisional rules of procedure.

There being no objection, it is so decided.

At the invitation of the President, Mr. Silovic (Yugoslavia) took a place at the Council table.

The PRESIDENT: The Security Council will now begin its consideration of the item on its agenda. The Security Council is meeting in accordance with the understanding reached in its prior consultations.

Members of the Council have before them the following documents: S/23363 and Add.1, containing a further report of the Secretary-General pursuant to Security Council resolution 721 (1991); S/23389, containing a note by the President of the Security Council; and S/23358, containing a report of the Secretary-General on the implementation of paragraph 5 (a) of Security Council resolution 724 (1991). Members of the Council also have before them document S/23382, which contains the text of a draft resolution prepared in the course of the Council's consultations. In this connection, an oral amendment has been made to operative paragraph 6 of the draft resolution, which now reads as follows:

"Reaffirms the embargo applied in paragraph 6 of resolution 713 (1991) and in paragraph 5 of resolution 724 (1991), and decides that the embargo applies in accordance with paragraph 33 of the Secretary-General's report (S/23363);".

It is my understanding that the Council is ready to proceed to the vote on the draft resolution (S/23382) before it, as orally amended. Unless I hear any objection, I shall put the draft resolution to the vote now.

There being no objection, it is so decided.

A vote was taken by show of hands.

In favour: Austria, Belgium, Cape Verde, China, Ecuador, France, Hungary, India, Japan, Morocco, Russian Federation, United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, United States of America, Venezuela, Zimbabwe

The PRESIDENT: There were 15 votes in favour. The draft resolution, as orally amended, has therefore been adopted unanimously as resolution 727 (1992).

The Security Council has thus concluded the present stage of its consideration of the item on its agenda.

ADMISSION OF NEW MEMBERS

LETTER DATED 31 DECEMBER 1991 FROM THE PRESIDENT OF THE REPUBLIC OF KAZAKHSTAN ADDRESSED TO THE SECRETARY-GENERAL (S/23353)

The PRESIDENT: The Security Council will now begin its consideration of the item on its agenda. In a letter dated 31 December 1991 addressed to the Secretary-General the President of the Republic of Kazakhstan submitted the application of his country for membership in the United Nations. That letter has been circulated in document S/23353.

Under the provisions of rule 59 of the provisional rules of procedure of the Security Council, unless the Council decides otherwise an application for membership shall be referred by the President of the Council to the Committee on the Admission of New Members. Accordingly, unless I hear a proposal to the contrary, I shall refer the application of the Republic of Kazakhstan to the Committee on the Admission of New Members for examination and report.

As I hear no objection, it is so decided.

I would propose that the Committee on the Admission of New Members schedule a meeting on Tuesday, 21 January, at 3.30 p.m., in Conference Room No. 7, to examine the application of the Republic of Kazakhstan and report back to the Council.

The meeting rose at 11.30 a.m.
